PENDLETON MURDER CASE IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION HERE*Falmouth Woman on Trial for the Murder of Her Husband—Married
Chauffeur Ten Days After Husband Died.

The trial of Mrs. Claudia DeWalt Trippett for the murder of her husband, Henry DeWalt at Falmouth this week is attracting much attention throughout this section of Kentucky. Attorney A. D. Cole, of this city, who has been assisting in the prosecution, arrived home Friday evening from Falmouth. The case went to the jury Friday evening and indications at present are that the case will result in a hung jury.

Mrs. Trippett is 36 years of age and said to be a most charming young woman. Her husband, Henry DeWalt, was a railroad man who met with an accident which caused him to lose his eyesight. He had gathered together quite a little estate and employed a young man by the name of Ivan Trippett to drive their big motor car. DeWalt was taken ill and died very suddenly. Ten days after his death his widow married Ivan Trippett, their chauffeur, at Newport and an investigation was started. A chemist who examined DeWalt's stomach, found 22½ grains of arsenic in the stomach of the dead man which caused the indictment to be returned against the wife.

The prosecution charged that the wife murdered her husband by giving him paris green in soda water but they are backing their charge by circumstantial evidence only, which they have thus far found is not strong enough to obtain a conviction carrying with it the electric chair or life imprisonment as a penalty.

DAVIS-ROBISON.

Miss Mabel Davis and Mr. Herman Roberson were quietly married at Lexington Wednesday by Dr. J. J. Spencer. Miss Davis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Davis of near here and is one of Fleming county's most popular teachers. Mr. Roberson is the son of T. B. Roberson of near here and is a prosperous young farmer. They were accompanied by Miss Estelle Auxier, of Covington, a cousin of the bride and Mr. Leslie Williams. After the ceremony the happy couple left for a short visit with friends at Louisville and Shelbyville. — Ewing Enquirer.

FALL FROM LADDER

At Peebles, Ohio, Last Week, Dies
From Internal Injuries.

J. A. Childers, of Peebles, fell a distance of 30 feet from a ladder Tuesday while painting the roof of the C. E. Bays home in that village, died Thursday from the internal injuries received in the fall. In the fall Mr. Childers suffered the fracture of both wrists, the broken bones coming through the skin in the left wrist. The internal injuries proved more serious than at first thought and Thursday morning his condition took a change for the worse. He died about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Childers is survived by five children, his wife passing away about two years ago.

The deceased was 56 years of age and before moving to Peebles lived in Lucasville and vicinity.

TOOK UP HIS BED AND WALKED.

The Vanceburg Sun says: "Sunday night Lafe Washburn was accused of disturbing the services at the church on State. Constable Wm. Litteral being present arrested him and brought him to Marshal Hendrickson, who locked him in the city bastile. Monday morning it was discovered that the locks were broken off both doors and the prisoner had taken his departure along with all the bedding. This business has gotten to be of weekly occurrence. How about chaining the next occupant?"

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEETING.

The November meeting of the King's Daughters of the Episcopal church, will be held Monday afternoon at the residence of Mr and Mrs. Ross Owens on West Fourth street. The hour of meeting will be 3 o'clock. Mrs. Owens will be assisted in receiving by Master Ross Owens, who is still keenly alive in entertaining, so after the usual business session a delightful social hour may be expected.

DEMOCRATIC LIE IS
NAILED TO WALL*The Cincinnati Times-Star says in a front-page editorial this afternoon:

"Fifty years ago personal scandal and whispered lies against the candidates played a considerable part in American politics.

"Until this year it seemed that we had been getting away from that sort of thing. The Presidential campaigns of the present century have been fought out chiefly in the open, with arguments about principles and the characters and intentions of candidates holding the center of the stage.

"This year the Democrats have tried to turn the clock back fifty years. They have attempted to revive that spirit of underhanded partisanship which was quite usual in America in the day when blackguards attacked the ancestry of the mother of Abraham Lincoln and said that Lincoln himself was illegitimate.

"Most of the energy of the underground section of the Democratic campaign has been devoted to the circulation of a lie about Harding's ancestry. No responsible Democrat has dared to repeat it in the open, but many Democrats have passed it around, hand to hand. There are few voters in Hamilton county who have not run up against this sneaking propaganda in one form or another, and who have not had somebody whisper in their ears in strict confidence, that there is really something in that story about Harding."

"The story is to the effect that Warren G. Harding's grandfather was Amos Harding and that he married Mary Ann Dixon, a negress.

"The story is false in every respect. It even has the wrong names for Harding's grandparents. The Senator's grandfather was Charles Alexander Harding. Charles Alexander Harding's wife, and the grandmother of Warren G. Harding on the paternal side, was Mary Ann Crawford. She was the daughter of Joshua Crawford of Baltimore and Sophia Stevens, whose family lived in Albemarle county, Va. The Crawfords were of Scotch-Irish descent, the family originating in Lanarkshire, Scotland. The first of the family came to America in the Seventeenth Century. The Crawfords appear all through the genealogies of Virginia and are related to most of the prominent families of colonial days in that state.

"There was an Amos Harding among Warren G. Harding's ancestors. He was not the Senator's grandfather, however, but his great-great-grandfather. The name of his wife was not Mary Ann Dixon, but Phoebe Tripp, who belonged to a well-known colonial family of Pennsylvania and was a cousin of Frances Slocum, the lost sister of Wyoming. Amos Harding lived in the Wyoming Valley, Pennsylvania, from 1777 to 1800. He came to Richland county, Ohio, early in the nineteenth century, and died there in 1833.

"As a rule Americans object to lies and particularly to that type of lie which flourishes only in the dark. Unless the character of our people has changed, they will show on Election Day exactly what they think of the subterranean campaign the Democrats have waged during the past three weeks.

"A political campaign that can not be run in the open, free press of America, is not to the credit of any party or candidate.

"We give below Harding's family tree. It is an ancestry of which any American might well be proud. We shall be glad to answer questions about any of the men or women whose names are given and are prepared to prove that there was not a drop of negro blood in any one of them.

Vote for R. F. Gaither for member of County School Board. An experience of 19 years in school work qualifies him for this position.

The Latonia Cup race, the last of the present season, will be run at the Latonia track this afternoon. This race this year is worth $7,000 to the winner. Many local followers of the ponies will see the race.

The Maysville Lumber Company's force of men have about completed the work of building the booths in the Liberty Warehouse for the 1920 Corn and Tobacco Fair and the interest in the sale of these booths continues to grow daily.

The workmen have been on the job for several days and the booths will be quite as attractive as ever before.

It was announced at the Chamber of Commerce today that there were but twenty more booths to be sold and as soon as all of the booths are sold there will be a drawing for position in which the booth owners will take much interest. As soon as the booth locations have been assigned the owners can begin the decorating and this year they will be given much more time than usual which will mean that the booths will be much more attractive than heretofore.

Merchants desiring booths should let the Chamber of Commerce know about it immediately.

Irvin Gifford bears the best of reputation throughout the section where he lives.

He is said to be one of the hardest working young men in Mason county and a man who is highly respected.

His friends came to his rescue promptly and should the Federal authorities want him to answer the charges, it is said he will surrender himself to them but it is the opinion of local authorities that the government has dropped the matter.

David Lawrence, probably the greatest political writer of the day, in his copyrighted articles appearing in the big city dailies today, predicts the election of Senator Harding to the Presidency. He gives Senator Harding 339 electoral votes and Governor Cox 192. The number of votes necessary to elect is 266.

Light refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake, salted almonds, and mints, were served; and punch throughout the evening. Dancing was the order of the evening, although there were diversions for those who did not dance. Quite a bit of amusement was created by the fish pond, kewpie doll and candy booths, which accompanied the masque carnival. The music for the dance was furnished by the Hubbard Saxo quartet.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Surely Removes Suffering and Pain. Here is Proof.

St. Paul, Neb.—I suffered with periodical pain for about four years so that I was unable to do my work at times. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. It soon stopped all my suffering so that I am now feeling fine in every way. I recommend your medicine to my friends who have similar troubles. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other women.—Mrs. WILL THOMAS, St. Paul, Neb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who now are free from suffering by its use.

"The Wires are Already There—"

Sometimes, when folks order a telephone, they say: "It won't take you but a few minutes to install it, because the wires are already on the house."

BUT—

The circuit from the house all the way to the telephone exchange is the one that really counts.

That circuit is released—used for some other subscribers—when a telephone is removed.

Another must be built up for you before your telephone can be installed, and that takes time and work—

That is why it takes longer than "just a few minutes" to install a telephone—because there is a great deal more to do than simply to fasten the instrument on your wall!

H. C. L. BIG ISSUE.

"It is becoming more and more plain as the campaign progresses and the people begin to think seriously of the arguments advanced by the respective parties that the League of Nations is not a live issue with the American people," says Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, in the New York Times. "They will become more interested in the next few months in the high living costs, the economical things near to them, such as the many direct taxes imposed in war times. I would not be surprised to see economic matters, such as taxation, high costs for the necessities and profiteering, absorb the entire attention of the voter and eclipse the big issues proclaimed as vital in the party platforms."

Topeka Capital: "Railroad cost of living has increased even more than the cost of living for everybody in the country, according to a circular issued by the Rock Island showing the heavy increase in the cost of equipment and the necessity for efficient operation on the part of all employees with a view of getting maximum service out of the equipment."

"Locomotives, for which the railroads paid $27,876 in 1914 now cost $75,750 or an increase of 171 per cent. It states. In 1914 a railroad had to pay about 5 per cent. interest charges on funds invested in locomotives. Today the road must pay about 7½ per cent. A box car could be bought in 1914 for about $1,000. Today it costs nearly $3,000. This is an increase of 200 per cent."

Camden Post-Telegram: "Camdenians feel who the increased pinch of higher rents and boosted trolley, gas, railroad and freight rates are told by the Federal Reserve Board that with the exception of food there is an 'important downward tendency' in prices of all commodities in all parts of the country."

"They may find it difficult to believe that old High Cost of Living has received a solar plexus, but the Federal Reserve Board says, like the late Dr. Munyon: 'There is hope!'

"Prices for anthracite coal were advanced 80 cents a ton on all sizes with the exception of a pea coal, where the advance was 75 cents a ton, by dealers in Philadelphia and vicinity yesterday, the day the new freight rates went into effect."

Minneapolis Tribune: "The people of this country have four main thoughts with respect to the railroads. First, that transportation service be efficient, impartial, and continuous; second, that railroad labor be compensated with wages that take into account not only the cost of living, but the skill, the strain, the responsibility and the hazard involved; third, that the companies be permitted to earn enough to meet adequate payrolls, maintain properties expand them with the growth of traffic, and pay holders of legitimate securities a fair return on their investments; fourth, that the roads be operated privately and be regulated by the government."

Muncie Press: "Our tariff will become an increasingly vital issue in the present campaign, if we mistake not. Figures showing the vast amount of revenue we have lost in the last seven years during which the Democratic tariff law has been operative, are available and should open the eyes of those who affirm that the tariff is a dead issue. In that period of seven years, our imports in value were slightly under $20,000,000,000 and from these a revenue of $1,631,00,000 was turned into the Federal treasury. In the previous seven years, 107-13 inclusive, under a Republican protective tariff policy, our imports aggregated about $10,000,000,000, or about half of those of the last seven years, and yet the revenue from that ten billions was $2,200,000,000 or far more than a half billion dollars in excess of that when the imports were twice as valuable.

St. Joseph News Press: "Food prices are very high. Clothing and shoes are expensive, and coal, it seems is difficult to obtain at any price. Millions of people are injuriously affected thereby and complain about it. So the federal government seeks to discharge its duty in the premises by sending out flocks of detectives, special agents and district attorneys to see whom it can put in jail." Nevertheless, it must be admitted that if the same official energy spent in looking for a villain were devoted to looking for better methods of production and distribution—particularly distribution—it would get better long-run results; but there would be fewer thrills."

New Jersey Mirror: "In this campaign the political party which can convince the country of its sincerity in promising to substantially reduce the great burden of war taxes under which people are groaning, will have won a great if not a decisive advantage. We hear a great deal read more of the League of Nations, of one man rule in this country and of other issues woven into the Presidential campaign, but, after all, we doubt whether there is any subject which more vitally interests the average voter than that of lessening the accumulated weight of taxes imposed under the Democratic administration."

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "The connection between Mr. Palmer's furious battle against the profiteers and continuous and burdensome increase, not ameliorative decrease, in prices seems too close to escape the attention of the harassed and stricken consumers. They will not fail to note that the recent fall in sugar and other commodities was absolutely disassociated with any legal measures instituted by Mr. Palmer or anybody else and came about solely because the towering structure erected by the profiteers had toppled from its own weight and insecurity. Will coal go down for the same reason?"

This statement was made by Mrs. Robinson A. McDowell, leading Louisville woman, who has been prominent for some years in welfare work and was active in patriotic enterprises during the war.

She is strongly opposed to Senator Beckman. "Some time ago," continued Mrs. McDowell, "the Louisville Times quoted me as favoring Governor Cox for President, when, as a matter of fact, I had not reached a decision as to how I would vote. Since then I have examined both political platforms very carefully, I have read speeches of both candidates, and I have studied the League of Nations till I know it like a multiplication table—and as a result I am going to vote for Senator Harding."

"My first reason is that I believe Senator Harding is right in his stand on the League of Nations. I agree with him in favoring the idea and the ideals of the League, but I can not support the plan the present covenant

Topic: Complete Destruction of the Liquor Traffic, Matt. 7:15-20.
REV. J. J. DICKEY.

The Eighteenth Amendment to the constitution, would seem to put an end to the liquor traffic in the United States; but there is a large class of people who are making herculean efforts to continue despite the amendment. Their method is to have the enforcement law so modified that beer and wine may be sold containing enough alcohol to intoxicate. They want the Volstead act amended which allows only one-half of one per cent. These people are doing their best to accomplish this by electing members of the House of Representatives who are pledged to vote for modification; and they are encouraging boot-legging to make the impression that prohibition can not be made to prohibit. This makes it highly important that all friends of prohibition be alert. We should be careful in the election of officers of every kind, lest we weaken the effect of prohibition laws. An officer who will not faithfully enforce the law is not worthy of any man's support.

Again the friends of prohibition will do well to keep posted as to the effects of prohibition in the country at large. Both the secular and religious papers have much information on this subject. Perhaps one of the strongest evidences in favor of prohibition is the closing of the work houses for criminals in the cities, both large and small. Chicago, Peoria, Boston and many cities have found it unnecessary to keep these houses open longer.

The arrests for drunkenness have fallen off to such a great extent that the rock pile is deserted. Law and order are observed to a degree unknown before. Millions of homes are now happy that were once miserable on account of drink. In some places there are gross violations of the law from lack of efficient policing. Men who had acquired the taste for alcoholic liquor find it hard to desist, and will go any lengths to get liquor. Millions have quit and are happy. Those that continue are miserable. This element of society will soon consume all the liquor that remains, and will then die. We will have to be content to raise up a new class who will not acquire the appetite, then it will be an easy matter to make prohibition effective. We must prepare ourselves for this experience and not allow ourselves to become too anxious. It took twenty years to establish prohibition in Kansas. There is a long hard fight ahead of us, and let us go into it boldly, satisfied it is right. The constitutional amendment will never be annulled, but it can be made ineffective. European ships loaded with liquor are smuggling their cargoes into port. That will be eventually stopped as far as other articles are kept out. We must cultivate and keep alive a healthy moral sentiment on this subject, and remember that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty!"

KENTUCKY DESPERADO FORGOT HE MURDERED.

Arrival of relatives of Thomas Mahoney, 60, shot and killed in Joseph Jansen's saloon, Pike and Russell streets, Covington, Ky., Wednesday night is awaited for the completion of funeral arrangements. Mahoney lived in fronton. Coroner Stephens, in his formal verdict, declared that the bullet causing Mahoney's death was fired from a revolver held by Michael Ward who is under arrest following a battle with the Cincinnati police. Ward still maintains he was so drunk that night he does not remember the shooting.

Ward is a native of Bourbon county and he and his four brothers were considered the Kentucky "Jesse James gang."

GOOD HEALTH HINTS

Oklahoma Farmer Gives Sound Advice on Avoiding Sickness.—Used Black-Draught 30 Years.

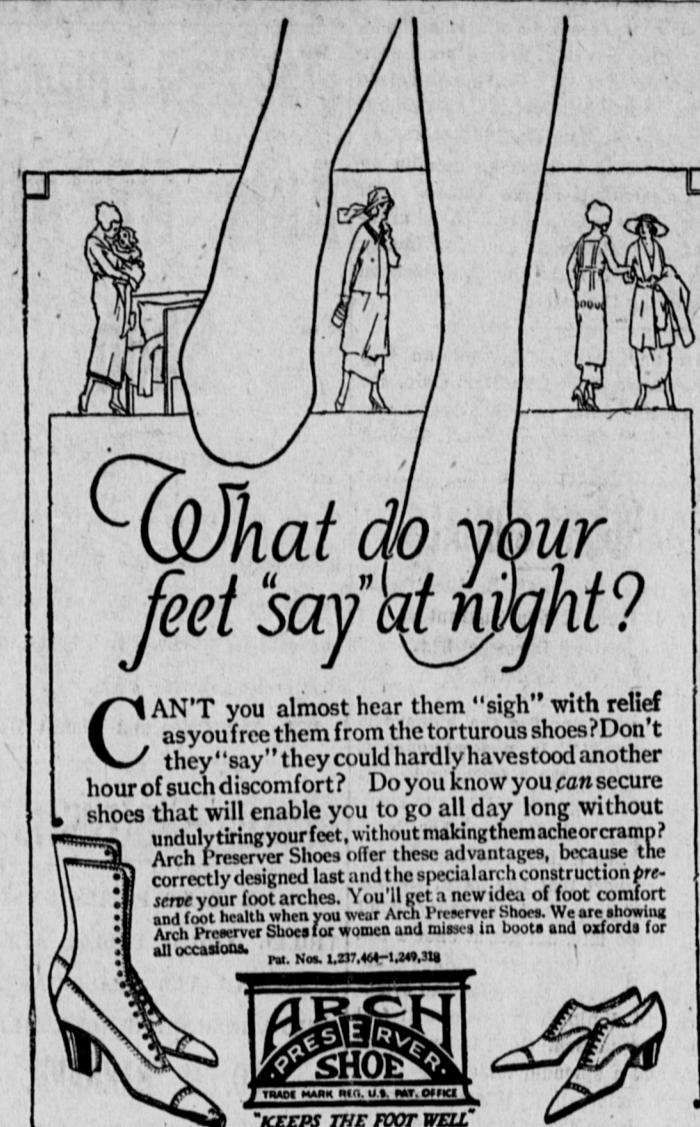

Cameron, Okla.—"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for about thirty years, and certainly ought to know by this time what a good medicine it is," says Mr. T. L. Bostier, a well-known farmer of this place. Mr. Bostier has passed his three-score-and-tenth year, but declares his health still is good, "and I can say Black-Draught did its part."

"Where there is a lot of malaria, and I have never found one better than Black-Draught," continues the Oklahoma man. "It is one that I know to be reliable. I sure use it for the liver, stomach, constipation, indigestion, and that has done me a world of good. We use it for the family, and it gives satisfaction.

"Most trouble, or sickness, comes from the liver, and if taken in time can be avoided. That is why I use Black-Draught as I do. I am much pleased with results obtained."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable. It acts on the bowels, gently stimulating the liver, and helps increase the normal flow of bile into the intestines. It assists in the digestion of food, and relieves constipation in a prompt and natural way.

Ask your druggist for a package today. Insist on Thedford's. NC-139

LETTER OF MRS. ALICE P. BOYD.

(Ky. Rep., October 23.)
Sisters, have you studied this League? I have, and I really believe it is a twin-sister of the slogan of 1916, "He kept us out of war." I always try to stand up for our government under any administration, but the present administration has not left us in a single plank to stand upon—and Cox says if he is elected he will carry out Wilson's plans to the letter, and that he and Wilson are one on the League of Nations.

Mothers, sisters—can't you see the handwriting on the wall?" God has always favored the American people in this—America's great hour of need, when faithless hands would place the freedom of our country in chains of European bondage, and pledge our boys to participate in all foreign wars; and yet give England six votes in this League, while poor old Uncle Sam has but one vote (placing us back very nearly to where we started in 1776, isn't it?) taxation without much representation). God has given—through the agency of the Republican party—the right of suffrage to the women of America. In all the history of the nations woman has never failed to do her part in any emergency—bravely, patiently, untiringly fulfilling any duty that is placed upon her. Now that the laws of our country have made it not only a privilege, but a duty for every woman of voting age to go to the polls and vote—will she fail in this? Surely not.

When the war came the women stepped bravely forward, some caring for the wounded on the battlefield—seemingly unconscious of danger; some filling the places left vacant by our soldier boys; some looking after the Red Cross and mercy work at home—and all with untiring patience cheerfully practicing rigid economy that our soldiers might be fed and clothed. Still some say "It is a disgrace for a woman to go to the polls and vote." Did the fact that our women labored so diligently to help win the war disgrace them? Mother, if you saw your helpless child falling into a blazing fire would you consider it any disgrace to help him out? But how much more better is the thought that our children and grandchildren shall be pledged to participate in foreign wars, without even reserving the right for our American Congress to say when they shall go to war. Could the mere fact that any woman goes to the polls and votes disgrace her? Certainly not.

Think of this, mothers, sisters—we are responsible to God for our children, and must also answer to Him for the use we make of this God-given right—nay duty of voting. Get busy, sisters, where will you place your vote? You didn't want woman suffrage? Neither did I. I felt that the men were still capable of running our Government, and somewhere—but one has failed signalily. I didn't want the war—neither did you; but when it came we all tried to do our bit to help win. America has never failed yet, and God doesn't want her to fall—that is why He doesn't want her entangled with a lot of pig-headed kings, and heathen nations that will not even accept God's missionaries. "Lord God of hosts, be with us yet! Lest we forget!"

I must give an account to God for what I am writing now, and sisters, as sure as there is a God above us, I would be burned at the stake before I would vote for this League of Nations.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Says Nothing Like Plain Argo-Phosphate to Pot on Firm Solid, Stay there Flesh and Muscle and Increase Strength, Vim, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Physicians claim there is nothing that will increase weight, strength and endurance like organic phosphate commonly known by druggists as argo-phosphate; it is inexpensive and is sold under a guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded. Weakness and thinness are usually due to starved nervous conditions.

Our bodies need more phosphates than are contained in the foods we eat.

If you wish a more rounded figure and plump well-developed arms, neck and bust in place of hollows you should simply take plain argo-phosphate as it builds up and restores rundown nervous conditions by phosphatizing the system. It transforms the appearance and an increase in weight is often times quickly produced.

The increase in weight also aids in improving the general health. Sleeplessness, nervousness, lack of energy, and ambition quickly disappear. Pale cheeks are changed to rosy and dull eyes become bright.

Miss Lena Brown off Atlanta, Ga., who only weighed 90 pounds reports that she gained 10 pounds in two weeks time and says argo-phosphate has made a different person of her and she has never felt better in her life.

SPECIAL NOTICE — Owing to the fact that so many physicians and drugists are recommending argo-phosphate for relieving all nervous, worn-out debilitated conditions and the unusually large sale for argo-phosphate there will be found in the market numerous substitutes for the genuine article. All imitations are inferior preparations and owing to its unusual flesh producing quality it should not be used by any one unless they desire to put on flesh and increase in weight. Dispensed by J. James Wood & Son.

SURVEY BEING MADE FOR CANAL.

Inspection of southern portion of the Miami-Erie Canal bed was made Saturday by three U. S. Army engineers, who are surveying four proposed canals to connect Lake Erie with Ohio River.

The engineers held a formal hearing Friday, when arguments were presented for
